

HR INTERIM

When you need more dedicated HR support

WHEN WE IDENTIFY THE NEED FOR MORE DEDICATED SUPPORT, WE CAN PROVIDE YOU WITH THE RIGHT RESOURCE FROM OUR TEAM.

THE APPROACH:

Whether it is for a three month assignment or for a year or more, we can support your business so you do not have to make a long term commitment to a new employee.

Interim is a flexible way of managing your workload. You know from experience that the quality of temporary or agency personnel in the market is typically poor. In contrast, Hunter Adams offers some of the market's leading HR professionals. We provide our people with a 'managed service.' We don't just payroll our consultants, we support and manage them to ensure they deliver at the highest level.

THE EXPERTISE:

We have a range of HR professionals working in-house at all levels of seniority. All our experts provide no-nonsense, commercial, practical advice to effectively tackle any issue you face. You can enjoy the added advantage that your key HR contact has a team of colleagues behind them to assist with any specialised needs.

We can react quickly to your business needs. We have a waiting list of consultants who want to join the Hunter Adams team because of the visible career path we provide.

THE RESULT:

This service may be useful to help deliver your HR strategy or to carry out a specific project, to enjoy some support through peak periods or just to cover a colleague's maternity leave.

“Having Lynn from Hunter Adams in the team has meant we can start to implement and deliver our HR strategy for 2012 and beyond. We cannot justify adding more permanent team members through peak periods so Hunter Adams has offered us the quality support at the right cost.”

“Colin from Hunter Adams has been excellent – the pace at which he delivers work makes this a very cost effective option for us. He has reviewed the way we recruit and helped us identify areas where we can reduce costs and time.”
